

TEACHING FRENCH WITH FABLES IN PRIMARY LEVEL: LA FONTAINE- THE COW AND FOX

Okut. Dr. Senem Seda Şahenk Erkan
Marmara Üniversitesi Yabancı Diller Yüksekokulu
senemseda78@gmail.com

Abstract

In primary level, primary students learn French as a foreign language. In addition, they read different types of texts. For example, type text into this group of fables. Because the period of pre-school and elementary students to fables (fables of La Fontaine and Aesop, etc ...) are interested in reading and listening. Fable is a kind of a fairy tale. The main objective of this kind of writing course is to give individuals while speaking animals. In this study "Jean de La Fontaine" can study "Fox and Crow" while teaching French in primary school as an example of fables review.

Key Words: Teaching French in primary level, studying with fables, Jean de La Fontaine, Fox and Crow.