

MUSIC TEACHERS READING HABITS OF CANDIDATE

Doç. Dr. Deniz Beste Çevik Kılıç
Balıkesir Üniversitesi
Necatibey Eğitim Fakültesi
Güzel Sanatlar Eğitimi Bölümü
Müzik Eğitimi Anabilim Dalı
beste@balikesir.edu.tr

Abstract

Reading books is a habit that needs to be developed from childhood and thinking skills in the development of an individual's personality plays an important role in the win. Reading habit is an indicator of a society's level of development. A society that does not realize the habit of reading can not capture the desired change. Individual, its ability to detect both himself and his living environment and its ability to adapt to the habit of reading is an undeniable fact. Individuals make a habit of reading, especially of prospective teachers on reading are expected to give more importance. Thus, the importance of the investigation of the reading habits of teachers is emerging. In this context, music teachers on the reading habits of thought aimed to investigate.

Key Words: Teachers of Music, Reading, Reading Habits.