

PRIORITY BEHAVIORS OF PRIMARY TEACHERS ABOUT SCHOOL GUARD DUTY

Doç. Dr. Nida Bayındır
DPÜ Eđitim Fakóltesi, Kütahya
nidabayindir@yahoo.com

Abstract

The education policies of government contains at desired behavior and development. Every contry, plans to short, mediom or long term at education aims to requested human features. These plans are implemented in school which first formal place. This environment can sometimes be undesirable behaviors. Research, was aimed priority behaviors of primary teachers about his school guard duty. According to a study, primary teachers 55.8% considers that the necessary of guard duty at schools. But 43.7% of primary teachers is to find enough at school guard duty. 61.6% of primary teachers considers primarily regulating the entrance and exit of school or class, providing security, controlling the students in school garden or school hall.

Key Words: Primary school teacher, school guard duty, negative conditions.