

AN INITATIVE PROGRAMME FOR PREVENTION OF BULLYING BEHAVIOR FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENT

Yrd. Doç. Dr. Arzu Akcan
Akdeniz Üniversitesi
arzu@akdeniz.edu.tr

Fatih Akcan
Milli Eğitim Bakanlığı
fatihakcan@hotmail.com

Öğr. Gör. Süreyya Sarvan
Akdeniz Üniversitesi
ssarvan@akdeniz.edu.tr

Abstract

This article is intended to be introduced "Peer Between Aggressive Behavior Prevention Program" was prepared to prevent bullying in middle school students and being tested the its effectiveness of an experimental study. of the article is considered. The article is considered that it will be useful for school health workers and teachers in the area. The programme, total six-week, consists of some applications covers middle school students and their parents . It is applied to students for six events 40 minutes each with main themes of recognizing emotions, express emotions, empathy, anger management, problem solving, social values and to parents for same amount of events 60 minutes each with the main themes of adolescence features, teenager communication, anger management. There are also six family events held in accordance with the program of the students. The activities carried out under the program are announced in weekly school boards to the teachers and other school employees for the purpose of disclosure and for the consolidation of the information of the students. Consequently, "Peer Between Aggressive Behavior Prevention Program" when is effectively implemented would be considered successful in the prevention of bully behavior.

Keywords: Aggression, bullying, middle school students.