USING INTERNET RESOURCES FOR PERFORMANCE
THE CANDIDATE STATUS OF MUSIC TEACHERS

Öğr. Gör. Önder Mustul
N.E.Ü A.K.E.F. Müzik Eğitimi Anabilim Dalı
ondermustul@hotmail.com

Öğr.Gör.Dr. Gözde Yüksel
N.E.Ü A.K.E.F. Müzik Eğitimi Anabilim Dalı
gozdecoskun@hotmail.com

Abstract
In the past hours of research studies, book hand-eye procedure to listen to music in an effort to access, libraries like emptying a whole lot more music room factors when caller information, labor and economically compelled. Today, all kinds of unlimited Internet, resources should be accessible to information from each field. So can our students use these resources efficiently? Of course they don't use resources effectively on behalf of them meet the needs of the age in this topic to raise awareness, create awareness, and to guide them in the process of education and educators should be placed between the targets. This research internet use of resources on music education instrument training in size. According to this research, the aim of music teacher candidates using internet resources is to determine the status of performance-oriented. The research study group consisted of Necmettin Erbakan University Department of music education A.K.E.F. education the 81 undergraduate students. The literature review and interviews covering the research, qualitative descriptive analysis is used. Study music teacher candidates are using internet resources is actively, as these resources are capable of learning material for performance and efficiency can accommodate concluded.

Keywords: Music Education, Performance, Use Of The Internet.